to meet the demand of coal by power stations located in Western and Southern India;

(b) the problems faced by CIL in this regard; and

(c) how the gap in coal despatch has been met?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COAL (SHRI JAG-DISH TYTLER): (a) to (c) During the strike at Singarcni Collieries Company Limited (SCCL), efforts were made to ensure that coal supplies to the power stations linked to that company were not affected. Coal to an extent of nearly 11.00 lakh tonnes was supplied from the subsidiary companies of Coal India Limited (CIL) to various power houses linked to SCCL. These supplies were made from Western Coalfields Ltd. Mahanadi Coalfields Ltd. and South Eastern Coalfields Ltd. As a result of these efforts, all the power houses served by SCCL continued almost normal generation of power during the strike period. The extra supplies from the subsidiaries of CIL was made from stocks as well as by diverting coal meant for consumers linked to CIL.
